

Your Tax Dollars. Their Brighter Tomorrow.

For the first time, individuals will be able to redirect up to $1,700 of federal taxes they already owe through MOST. Married taxpayers filing jointly may redirect up to $3,400 total and select the school of their choice to receive those funds for scholarships.

*Same Taxes.
Brighter Futures.*

HOW IT WORKS AT NO COST TO YOU

1

YOU OWE FEDERAL TAXES

You already have a federal income tax liability.

2

REDIRECT UP TO $1,700 PER TAXPAYER

Choose to redirect up to $1,700 of the federal taxes you already owe through MOST. Married taxpayers filing jointly may redirect up to $3,400 total.

3

SELECT A SCHOOL

Designate the school of your choice to receive the funds for scholarships.

4

MAKE A LASTING IMPACT

More students gain access to the education that best fits their needs.

Redirect a little at a time or all at once

Married taxpayers filing jointly may each redirect up to $1,700, for up to $3,400 per household.

EVERY 2 WEEKS

About $65.38

26 payments

MONTHLY

About $141.67

12 payments

ALL AT ONCE

$1,700

One payment

Keep your budget the same

Adjust your W-4 withholding so you do not see a difference in your monthly budget and redirect those dollars through MOST to the school of your choice. It is that easy.

A REAL EXAMPLE

$10,000

FEDERAL TAX LIABILITY
(before)

– $1,700

REDIRECTED THROUGH MOST

= $8,300

REMAINING FEDERAL TAX LIABILITY (after)

IMPORTANT TO KNOW

A tax credit reduces the taxes you owe dollar for dollar, unlike a tax deduction, which only reduces the amount of income subject to tax.
